

Joseph Duncan is a Core Business Advisor with Pacific Coast Regional Small Business Development Corporation, focusing on small business finance and general business coaching. In addition, Joseph is the Managing Director of Assured Consultants, Inc. in El Segundo, CA. His company provides solution-based services to small and medium-sized businesses. Joseph has a background of over 25 years in financial services most of that supporting small business owners and executives as a commercial lender and relationship manager.

Joseph is a native Angeleno and serves on several nonprofit boards to assist community organizations. He has two adult children and enjoys sports, music, reading, travel, and cooking in his spare time.